Disempowering the Superego and Liberating Conscience in Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy

Presenter

Donald L. Carveth, Ph.D.

Emeritus Professor of Sociology and Social & Political Thought, York University
Training & Supervising Analyst, Canadian Institute of Psychoanalysis
Director, Toronto Institute of Psychoanalysis

ABSTRACT

Superego-focused psychotherapy, the clinical approach based upon the ideas advanced in The Still Small Voice: Psychoanalytic Reflections on Guilt and Conscience (Carveth, 2013) will be discussed and illustrated through presentation of a case study.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

1. To learn how to distinguish between superego (identification with the aggressor) and conscience (identification with the nurturer).
2. To learn about “superego-focused psychotherapy” through a case study.
3. To learn of techniques for disempowering the superego.
